Teaching students is one of the most exciting jobs in the world.

However it can be a challenge due to significant shifts in the modern academic context, such as :

Digital transformation AI, ARVR, online classrooms

Interdisciplinary education

Global student diversity

Outcome-based education (OBE)

Competency and skill-based learning (beyond rote learning). Faculty members will gain an insight in the above topics which would help and encourage to handle the class room teaching more effectively and efficiently with joy and interest
